ENDEAVORING TO GIVE YOUNGSTERS EMPLOYMENT THIS SUMMER

Construction of State and Federal Child Labor Laws Will Be Asked As They Apply to Tobacco Stemming.—Prof. Caplinger Investigates.

There has been much discussion in Maysville since the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Stemming started last week about the state and federal child labor laws as they apply to a tobacco stemming. Many children who attend school during the school term and who are now out on vacation have sought employment in the stemming but the management, although desiring to give the youngsters employment, have been compelled to refuse them work because of the provisions of the child labor laws.

There are those who believe the law covering children between the ages of 14 and 16 does not apply to a tobacco stemming while there are others who believe these laws do apply and in order to get a direct ruling on the matter, Superintendent W. J. Caplinger, of the city schools, who is in charge of the matter in this city, will Wednesday morning visit the Reynolds plant and learn exactly what kind of work the children are called upon to do and near what machinery they are expected to work. He will then make a full and comprehensive report of the conditions at the plant as he finds them and ask the State Labor Board for a direct ruling. Upon receipt of this ruling it will be made public and the number of youngsters who are now clamoring for work will know what they may expect and the managers will know how to proceed.

MAYSVILLE MAN NAMED TO HEAD S. S. ASSOCIATION

Ben H. Greenlee Elected President of Mason County Sunday School Association at Mayslick Meeting.

Vaughn, of Louisville, Ky., State Sunday School Worker and Dr. John Barbour and Dr. B. B. Bailey, of Maysville, were greatly enjoyed. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

President, Ben H. Greenlee; Vice President, Prof. T. J. Currey; Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. Joseph Wells; Superintendent Teacher Training Department, Prof. C. S. C. & O. COAL DOCKS MOVED FROM HERE TO CONCORD TODAY

Maysville Loses Plant Which Gave Employment to Several People Here—Streets Will Not Be Blocked Long in the Future.

When the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad Company's Coal Docks burned at this place the company announced that they proposed to build it farther East for convenience of the road and to prevent the blocking of cross streets in the city of Maysville. Shortly after that they began work at erecting a steel and concrete dock near Concord, Lewis county and it is now completed.

Since the burning of the docks at this place the company has been using a large "digger" with which to load their trains with coal on the site of the old docks but this morning this was discontinued here and the new docks at Concord were started.

The moving of the coal docks to Concord will ultimately prove distinct loss to Maysville as the pay roll of the plant is said to be something like $2800 per month and the most of the men who worked on the docks and were connected with the docks either lived in Maysville or its suburbs and this pay roll finally found its way to the cash drawers of the local merchants. For the present, it is expected that the men working on and about the docks and pumping station will continue their homes near Maysville but it is reasonable to believe that these families will finally move closer to their work. Maysville being the largest city in this territory much of this money will come here any way but much which would have been spent here had the plant remained here will now be spent with merchants nearer the plant.

One distinct advantage to Maysville in the moving of the docks from this city is that in the future there will not be so much of an excuse for the blocking of East and cross streets. When East bound engines were coaling at the docks they often left their train of cars standing on the tracks within the city thus blocking the crossings in some cases for quite a while. This excuse will be entirely removed and Maysville's East end cross streets should be clear in the future.

An effort was made on the part of the Maysville Chamber of Commerce to hold the docks in Maysville but the railroad company explained that there were many advantages in moving it farther East.

The pumping station at the site of the old coal docks will be discontinued during the week thus removing two more families from the suburbs of the city.

It is thorough the night ferry will prove quite a success. It is certainly a great advantage to Aberdeen and Maysville people.

REDUCTION ON MINIMUM CHARGE FOR ELECTRICITY IS MADE

Laws and Ordinance Committee of Council Draft Law Covering Gas and Electricity Contract—Minimum Charge Reduced Twenty-five Cents.

At a meeting of the Laws and Ordinance Committee of the Maysville City Council held at the Council Chamber on Monday evening the new gas and electric contract with the Maysville Gas Company was gone over thoroughly and the committee obtained a reduction of twenty-five cents on the minimum monthly charge for electricity. The tentative contract provided that there should be a minimum charge of one dollar per month for electricity but the committee and representatives of the Maysville Gas Company discussed the matter and finally the representatives of the company agreed to reduce this minimum charge to seventy-five cents.

Except for this change the contract remains the same as the original draft presented to council at the regular June meeting and which was published in substance in the Public Ledger.

The Laws and Ordinance Committee drew up an ordinance covering the contract as revised, thus for another year settling the gas and electric question. This ordinance will be presented to council as a whole at the adjourned meeting scheduled for tonight and at that time it will be adopted and become operative.

The ordinance will contain the Great White Way clause and work at the building of this Great White Way will begin just as soon as the Maysville Gas Company can get the material and get the matter straightened out with the manufacturers and jobbers, with whom they have an understanding on the matter.

This committee also thoroughly discussed the automobile speeding over the Limestone bridge and every member of the committee felt ready to provide more legislation to cover the speedy approach to this bridge where a serious accident is liable to happen at most any time. City Attorney Daly assured the councilmen that the city and state already had laws covering this matter that would serve admirably and it is understood that the city officials will begin at once the rigid enforcement of these laws to prevent any bad accident on the connecting bridge between the Eastern and Western sections of the city.

HIGH TENSION IN EUROPE AWAITING REPLY OF GERMANY

Enemy Must Decide on Peace or War Before 7 O'clock Monday Evening—Allied Forces Ready.

Paris, June 17.—With peace or war to be determined before 7 p. m. Monday, the tension in Paris today recalled that preceding the opening of hostilities in August, 1914.

County Brockdorff-Rantzau was en route to Weimar today with a retinue of German delegates to present to the National Assembly the allies' reply to the counter proposals, submitted at Versailles yesterday evening.

The feeling of the French people was illustrated by the fact that when the Germans left the Hotel Des Reservoirs for their special train at 9:45 last night a crowd of 4000 gathered outside, hooting the enemy representatives. This was the first demonstration against them in the weeks they have been in France.

Latest advices from Berlin and Weimar reiterate that Germany will not accept the revised treaty unless it contains important modifications. Through reports, the German Government has been apprised from time to time of the alterations, and in this way already is in possession of the main concessions.

The optimism in allied circles which had been so noticeable in the last few days, changed today to a feeling of uncertainty as to whether the Germans will find the modifications sufficient to warrant acceptance. This attitude was reflected by the public, attitude which eagerly scanned every word touching on the situation. There were no demonstrations in the streets, and the people went about their business as usual, but the air was electric with a nervous tension as the citizens silently considered the one great question—"peace or war?"

To the eastward, beyond the battle scarred regions over which the armies fought and re-fought for four years, the armies of Marshall Ferdinand Foch waited on German soil for the word that will send them to Berlin, or reduce them to the status of a mere police force.

To the northward, the great ships of the British navy, their movement shrouded in mystery, were known to be preparing for a quick descent upon the all but unprotected German coast, if the verdict is war.

OUR POLICY

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the County as a whole.

TARIFFS A LEGISLATIVE PROBLEM

A member of the U. S. Tariff Commission advocates a law which will "authorize the President to levy by proclamation additional duties on goods which are being systematically dumped into the United States, or to prohibit their importation in case he has reason to believe that the result will be to injure, destroy or prevent the establishment of an American industry."

There you have one more illustration of the grasping ambition of bureaucracy. More power, is the limitless desire, "Leave it to me," is bureaucracy's motto. Personal government, is the ideal. Government by law is not even a last resort.

Just think of the possibilities of a broad creation of discretion such as that opposed. Certain commodities are shipped in large quantities into this country. Persons interested as manufacturers of the same commodities ask for a proclamation against the importations. The importers oppose the issuance of a ban. Speculators lay in a supply of the goods imported at low prices and suddenly the country is taken by surprise by issuance of a prohibition order that shuts out further importations, increases the value of goods already brought in, makes fortunes for those who bought up the supply, and starts rumors as to some one having an advance tip as to the best time to buy, in what quantities, what commodities, and at what prices.

People who remember the rumors of fortunes made in the stock market a few years back by men who got an early tip on a Presidential note, will see the danger of repetition of incidents that tend to shake confidence in government. Creating opportunities for that sort of thing is hardly the part of wisdom.

The proper policy for America is to regard importations of articles that can be produced here as "unfair" to American producers. We should prevent such unfair competition by imposing an import duty at least equal to the difference in cost of production here and in the country of lowest cost of production provided the latter country sells to us a quantity sufficient to be a menace to our home industry. But the rate of duty, the time and manner of its establishment, should be fixed by law, so that every person interested may have equal knowledge of the proposed action and the time when it is to become effective. The rights of importers and producers should be fixed by law and not be subject to the varying discretion of a President, especially one who believes in the "removal of all economic barriers."

This discussion has dealt with the subject wholly from the standpoint of governmental policy. As a matter of constitutional law it is doubtful whether any pretext could be devised that would sustain even technically a delegation of power to the President to fix import duties.

THRIFT SUNDAY TO BE OBSERVED NEXT SUNDAY

Ministers Over the State Will Be Asked to Preach Special Sermons to Urge Thrift Among the People.

Thrift Sunday is to be observed throughout the country on June 22d. On this date every minister in Kentucky will be asked to deliver their Sunday sermon on Thrift and to read the message of Secretary of Treasury Carter Glass to their people on War Savings and Thrift.

The project has been launched by the Savings Division, War Loan Organization of the Treasury Department which has started a nation wide movement to conserve the war taught habits of thrift which has met with the hearty approval from many interests and organizations.

Every man, woman and child in the United States will be asked to consider and discuss on Thrift Sunday the present necessity for economy and its permanent value to personal community and national prosperity.

"Thrift and savings are the high-ways to freedom," says State Director James B. Brown. "That safe and profitable investment may be within reach of everyone the Treasury Department is continuing the sale of Thrift and War Savings Stamps. The latter costing a little over one percent, compounded quarterly is one of the very best rates for savings," declares Mr. Brown.

"War Savings Stamps are made easy to acquire Thrift Stamps cost but a quarter each and sixteen of these plus a few cents additional may be exchanged for an interest bearing War Savings Stamp."

The slogan of the Savings Division is "Save First, Spend Afterwards." "We hope to have every minister in Kentucky preach on Thrift on June 22d on the meaning and value of intelligent Thrift to his congregation and suggest plans for community and individual Thrift in addition to encouraging organizations to enroll as government savings societies," said the State Director.

ASKED TO ENDORSE THE ELECTRIC MAIL IDEA FOR NATION

Chamber of Commerce Is Called Upon to Put O. K. on Plan to Hasten Mail Messages.

The Maysville Chamber of Commerce has been invited to endorse to our Congressmen, "The Electric Mail" and urge him to give his endorsement to the plan, to the Post Master General.

The business of the country is now seriously hampered by an utterly inadequate Post Office Service, not due to lack of efficiency but to demands with which even increased equipment and efficiency could not keep up. A similar condition in England required three years to get order out of chaos.

A new Post Office service is now available which, if adopted by the authorities will largely relieve this condition. It is the Electric Mail. This service handled the letter or card at both ends by the Post Office just as letters and cards are handled now, but the contents are transmitted by wire between terminal Post Offices. The Electric Mail is the last word in Post Office service, as practically all other means of transmission but the wire are now in use.

How It Works

Write a letter, put it in an envelope, seal it, write "Electric Mail" on the outside and affix 25 cents in postage stamps for the first 50 words or less with 5 cents for each additional 10 words or less.

Get the letter to the Post Office just as you would any other letter using the Rural Delivery mail box, the street corner box or the mail chute in your building. If you wish to save time send it directly to the Post Office.

In the Post Office the stamps are cancelled the contents of the letter wired to the distant city, there type-written, put in an envelope, sealed, properly addressed, and delivered by carrier or put in Post Office box or General Delivery as is any other letter.

If ten words will serve your need, ten words on a card and attach 10 cents in postage stamps—all else same as for letter. 10 cents additional secure a special delivery for either letter or card.

This service will mean that you and your correspondent, hundreds or even thousands of miles apart can exchange 3 or 4 more letters or cards during the business hours of a single day as train time between cities, bagging, hauling, etc., are all eliminated.

Post Office Savings

If adopted the Electric Mail while adding to Post Office revenues will lessen Post Office work as it will do away with the trouble and expense of putting mail into bags and taking it out of bags, hauling bags between the Post Office and railroad and the cost of transportation. Also carrier service at one or both ends will be saved as a large proportion of the letters will be sent directly to the Post Office and many at the receiving end placed in Post Office boxes or in General Delivery.

The Electric Mail Means FOR THE POST OFFICE: Ease and nominal expense of introduction.

Less labor for employees. No change in present Post Office methods.

No new methods to be learned. Some fees as now received for first class mail but far less work.

Increased revenues.

(a) Savings on present first class mail transferred to Electric Mail.

(b) Receipts from new business that

The familiar figure in blue uniform and poke bonnet is back home to serve, after four years in khaki with the boys "Over There." Salvation Army lassies served old fashioned American dough nuts in the front line trenches, and now that the war is over they will be found again in the slums and dark places of our great cities, ready to give a helping hand to men, women and children who are on the down grade. The Salvation Army Home Service Campaign, for Kentucky, outside of Louisville and Jefferson county, opens June 23, to last one week.

will be created by this service.

FOR THE PUBLIC:

A new service almost as speedy as a telegram costing but little more than a Special Delivery letter, giving convenience, speed, low cost and general efficiency.

Example: 50 word telegram, New York to Chicago $2.

50 words by Electric Mail, New York to Chicago, 25c.

The one rate to all points plan should prove a very desirable feature to many business men. The matter will be presented at the next meeting of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce.

YOUNG CARLISLE MAN KILLED IN ACCIDENT

Motor Car Turned Over Piling Driver Underneath; Girl Badly Hurt.

Carlisle, Ky., June 16.—Vernon Smart, 23 years old, a trader of Carlisle, was instantly killed and Miss Pansy Ewell suffered internal injuries which may prove fatal when the automobile in which they and three other girls were driving turned over about 4

The party was returning from East Union to Carlisle and the accident happened near the former town. Mr. Bramlette took the girls in his car to East Union for medical attention, and the body of Mr. Smart was taken to Carlisle. He was the son of George Smart, of near Carlisle. The Misses Ewell are daughters of Charles Ewell, of Carlisle, and Miss Williams is the daughter of Joseph Williams of the same place.

CHRISTIAN LIFE IS SUBJECT OF STRONG SERMON

Dr. John Barbour at First Presbyterian Church Preached Wonderful Sermon Sunday Morning.

Dr. Barbour's sermon Sunday morning has been greatly commented on by those who heard it. We are able to give below a condensation of it.

The theme was Paul's comparison of the Christian life, drawn from the race for the crown. (1 Cor. ix:25.)

He said: In this allusion to the Grecian games you see the breadth of the Apostle's mind. He was by training and tastes a scholar, but he was more than that—far more. He was a man who kept eyes and ears open. He knew men, following them to their haunts and occupations and interested in their diversions. He culled from everything that men did for images and inspiration in his work.

We see here the breadth of the ministry. There is no calling which deals more generally with life, which touches men at more points which need to know men better or does know men better. We are often told that we do not know the worst side of men. We do not need to. To know the best side is to know men most deeply as beings made in the image of God.

We are reminded also that Christianity makes only such demands on men as are necessary for success in every undertaking. There is no undue hardship, no extra burden laid upon a man to become a Christian. He has only to follow the law of the race. The athlete of yore submitted to the most vigorous self-denials to attain proper form for his work.

Dainty fare was not for him. The pleasures of the wine cup must be eschewed, wearisome exercises by day and a hard bed at night. But out of it all he came a perfect man physically with clear head and responsive limbs and the consciousness of power. This he did willingly that at the end he might hear the waves of applause washing toward him from the multitude and might wear the chaplet of parsley or olive or palm—a corruptible crown.

Now there is nothing harder asked of a man in the Christian life. Every successful business man illustrates the same principle. He takes a trouble in his business and practices a self-denial which would make a saint of him in religion. It follows from all this that religion is possible to all men. If I should say to one of these men preferring to batter each other in the prize ring, you ought to eschew liquor, to live a pure and continent life he would probably say, "Well that will do for a parson, but it will not do for a man full of blood and passion."

Yet for a passing victory these men practice abstinence and the hardest kind of work. They are on the road, this hottest weather training for form. They are pounded and bated and kept from softness and self-indulgence that the flesh may harden and brain and nerve be healthy. If one of our young men should go to a physician and he should write upon his little paper, "Live like a Christian for ten years and you will be perfectly well." He would reply, "You are prescribing for your health."

If he's a sensible fellow he will do that for his health sake. But why should he not do it for his eternal well and happiness.

Self mastery is the law of success in everything, and there is no great business man who does not achieve it.

Oh! but a man says, "I could never forgive my enemies." But he can and he does! He is glad to see them coming into his store and he sees them well waited upon, possibly invited to his house. But that is business—good politics. Take patience. Oh! the patience that the average tradesman shows with customers. Oh! the disagreeable people we put up with for their trade! Oh! the disagreeable work we do for money!

I want you to notice also that the forms of Christianity which make the most earnest and vigorous demands on men influence the popular mind the most. The greatest preacher of the century was Spurgeon, a Puritan in life, a Calvinist in theology. Men came in thousands to hear him.

Gifted men like Frothingham in New York, and Moncreux Conway in London absolutely petered out. Only strong earnest truth draws. Oh! but Mr. Beecher, you say—well it was the truth rather than the novelties in his preaching which drew. I heard him one night preach on the hardening of the heart a sermon which would have fitted perfectly into an intense Methodist revival series. He was never so suaverly eloquent as when he was preaching the strong and earnest truth.

The element of heroism is in all men. It is this which waked up in millions of men in the last war and it was strongest in men of religious nature. Sergeant York, the typical hero of the war came out of a religious habit. He was unsophisticated in the ways of the world but when flung down suddenly in that awful fight with foreigners he was stronger than they because his heart was true and his body and brain sound.

Success in any place secular or religious calls for manhood and that is made in the School of Christ. "Whoever striveth for mastery is temperate, self-controlled in all things. Now they do it for a corruptible crown, but we for an incorruptible."

WOMEN AT WORK

During the war, millions of women have been at work in vocations into which they have never before been called.—In Munition Factories, Chemical Works, Metal Works, Street Railways, and as Ambulance Drivers, Barbers, and Elevator Girls. Undoubtedly thousands of others have longed to serve in this way, but because of female ailments, which had fastened upon them, were not able to do so. Women in this condition should give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and find health and strength, as thousands of others have so done.

PROSPECTS FOR SALVATION ARMY DRIVE ARE PROMISING

Ministers of State Churches Asked to Call Special Attention to Campaign on Next Sunday.

Work for the Home Service Fund of the Salvation Army will start promptly, in fact has already begun, an organization for the drive, with some of the best men and women of the state in charge having been perfected. News from the State Headquarters at Lexington, where Colonel I. Sobel is in charge of the State Campaign, is to the effect that the outlook for Kentucky going over the top is excellent and that this worthy organization will be given the needed funds to look after the wants of returned and returning soldiers as well as they looked after the fighting men at the front in Europe.

Sunday, June 22, will be Salvation Army Sunday in all the churches of Kentucky, the ministers having been asked to preach at that time on the work of the Army at home and what it did for the soldiers abroad. The next day, June 23, the drive for the Home Service Fund actually starts and it will be completed Monday, June 24.

With the problem of establishing boozeless saloons where there is any demand for them, finding work for unemployed soldiers and others who may want work after the saloon has passed out, there will be plenty of use for the fund to be raised in this drive and Commander Evangeline Booth and her co-workers at the head of the Army are sufficient assurance that it will be properly expended.

MISS BOOTH, IN RAGS, AIDED LONDON POOR

Salvation Army Commander, Disguised, Roamed Through Slums to Study Intimate Problems of East End Unfortunates

Miss Evangeline Booth, daughter of the late General William Booth, founder of the Salvation Army, has given her life to the service of the poor and the unfortunate. Few persons, if any, know she went about in the East End of London disguised in rags that she might help the unfortunate. When her father stood erect amid a storm of abuse and even physical violence she stood beside him.

She knows how the poor suffer because she has suffered with them. She knows there still remains in the wreck of a dissolute man a spark of manhood that will kindle a redeeming flame, because she has fanned many flickering sparks until her patient has regained his feet. She now heads the Salvation Army in the United States at the great moment of its career. The old time slurs and doubts have been banished. During the week of June 23-30 the Salvation Army will appeal to the people of Kentucky for funds to carry out its after-the-war program. Contribute to the Salvation Army Home Service Fund Campaign. WHAT THE CINCINNATI CRITICS SAID ABOUT "THE UNPARDONABLE SIN"

Holbrook Blinn and Blanche Sweet appears in a remarkable picture of Rupert Hughes' astounding story "The Unpardonable Sin" at the Pastime Theater on next Thursday, June 19, afternoon and night. Here's what the Cincinnati critics said of this great picture that just completed a two weeks' engagement at the Lyric Theater, Cincinnati: "Blanche Sweet's return to the screen is made triumphantly in one of the greatest films ever brought to Cincinnati."—Myrtle Miles, Times-Star. "The capacity-filled theater was silent as a tomb—even fans failed to move. Such is the power of Marshall Nielan's staging of this drama."—Herman Thuman, Enquirer. "The Unpardonable Sin" is undoubtedly Rupert Hughes' masterpiece, and also Blanche Sweet's and Marshall Nielan's."—Joseph Mayer, Commercial-Tribune. "I expected to play making capital of a lurid theme, a mere catering to sensationalism—but I found a play seriously telling a gripping tale."—Charles O'Neill, Post.

MANY KENTUCKY BOYS WEARING MEDALS

Boys From 16 to 21 Are Eligible to Enroll in U. S. Boys' Working Reserve For the Summer.

A very large number of boys in Kentucky are proudly wearing the Bronze Service given to them by the U. S. Boys' Working Reserve, a branch of the Department of Labor. This medal is given to every boy enrolled in the Reserve in recognition of 36 days' faithful service on the farm helping to raise food to feed the starving people of Europe. When the Reserve boy completes 55 days of service he receives a medal larger in size and for 75 days' work he receives the Honorable Service Bar.

All boys in Kentucky from 16 to 21 years of age are eligible to enroll in the Reserve for farm labor. Boys who live and work on the farms are as welcome as the boys in cities and towns who go to the farms. A large number of farm boys in Kentucky are already enrolled and many are going out to the farms from the cities and towns for vacation work on the farms.

Acting upon the request of the Department of Labor at Washington, the enrollment of boys in the Reserve will continue until the late harvest in order that the nation's record crops may be fully gathered.

Any boy desiring to know more about how these medals may be won can write George E. Stephens, Executive State Director, 345 Y. M. C. A. Building, Louisville, Ky.

ENFORCE CITY'S MILK LICENSE ORDINANCE, SAYS HEALTH OFFICER

Dr. Rice Says City Law Controlling Milk Supply Has Been Allowed to Go Unenforced and Makes Plea For Its Enforcement This Summer.

Dr. Rice, Mason County's Health Officer this afternoon issued the following statement:

In September 1917, the City Council unanimously passed an ordinance to regulate the delivery and sale of milk and milk products in Maysville. This was a splendid ordinance from the standpoint of giving to the city a supply of milk, which would contain the proper elements for nutrition, be clean and safe from a sanitary standpoint. During the year 1918 this ordinance went evidently out of fashion, no milk licenses were issued and hence no control or supervision of the milk consumed in Maysville. At the present time no one knows who is selling milk in Maysville, where it is being produced or how it is being handled.

Milk is one of the best food products used by human beings and contains those constituents which are especially valuable for children and babies. On the other hand it is a dangerous food unless properly handled and delivered to the consumer a pure product. Milk is easily contaminated by filth and disease germs and is a known spreader of diseases like typhoid fever and the summer complaints of children and babies. Within the past three weeks a case diagnosed as typhoid fever in this county was investigated by the Health Department. On visiting this family it was learned that the patient was living in surroundings that were not too sanitary. There was no privy on the place, but cows were kept and milked by this family and the cream sold in Maysville. Many epidemics of disease have started in places like this one.

There is no reason why the people of Maysville should not have a safe and wholesome supply of milk, but in order to attain this end, it is necessary that this ordinance be put in effect and continued so. In order to have a safe milk for consumption it is necessary to have control of the supply and to get this control it is necessary to know who is selling and delivering it. The ordinance covers this point by requiring all milk dealers to have a license. SECTION 1. "No person shall bring into the City of Maysville for sale, or shall sell or offer for sale, any milk or cream, skim milk or butter-milk intended for human consumption without a permit or license issued by the Mayor so to do." By laboratory examination and the inspection of the milk and the dairies it is easy to determine where the best and the worst milk is coming from. The people of Maysville want the best of everything and to have the best and purest milk possible it is necessary to know under what conditions it is being produced and what it shows on examination. It is the duty of the Health Department to furnish this information.

Every man is proud of the goods he is producing or selling, stands back of them and wants them to be the best on the market and this holds true of the Dairyman and the milk dealer. This ordinance was framed and passed so that the Health Department would be a help to these men to put out a first-class product. The Health Department does not want to dictate to the milk men, but to co-operate with them for the improvement of their product.

This milk ordinance is supposed to be in effect now, but it is not. The Health Department to protect the public health asks that it be put in effect immediately and will do its part in making it so. Licenses are to be obtained from the Mayor before the first of July 1919 for the year 1919 and the Health Department will begin the first of July to make inspections and investigations as required by this ordinance.

The first step for the milk dealers and producers is to obtain their licenses before July first and conduct their business as nearly as possible in accordance with this ordinance.

The first step for the citizens of the city is to take an interest in the milk they are using by finding out if their Dairyman has a license to sell milk.

An all together pull of the Milkmen, the citizens of Maysville and the Health Department will produce a milk supply that will be safe, sanitary and contain the proper nutritive elements.

Anyone caring to see this ordinance the original will be found in the Mayor's office and a copy in the office of the Health Department.

GOVERNOR TO CALL STATE TEXTBOOK BODY TOGETHER

Governor Black Says He Will Dissent Court Opinion Before Fixing Date.

Frankfort, Ky., June 17.—Governor Black will call the State Textbook Commission together to fix a date for the adoption of school books or to make the adoption of the school books just as soon as he digests the opinion of the Court of Appeals in the case of E. B. Weathers, Jr., against the textbook commission.

Just when that will be he does not know positively. At least he declined to fix the date Monday night when the question was asked. He said that since the decision of the court in this case, he had been away almost all the time and had not had an opportunity to study the opinion as he should. He expects, however, to take some action in this case in a few days.

The date for the house-cleaning at the capitol has not been fixed either. Governor Black said tonight. "It is not my purpose to get into a controversy with any person, but I have not made any agreement with Colonel Denhardt or any other person." This answer was made in response to the direct question asked him if it was true that he has agreed with Colonel Denhardt that he would clean-house at the capitol. He said that he did not care to discuss that matter, as it is likely that he would be misunderstood and this would result in a controversy.
